Parent interest in behavioral support at their child’s pediatric clinic

Chris Mehus, PhD

Dr. Mehus will share some preliminary findings from his Academic Pediatric Association-funded project, and brainstorm ideas about which story(ies) would be best for dissemination.

Incarceration and Health

Rebecca Shlafer, PhD & Tyler Winkelman, MD

Drs. Shalfer and Winkelman (Hennepin County Medical Center) will discuss their work developing an interprofessional student group for health professionals interested in mass incarceration’s impact on health and well-being.
