The Developing Brain and Early Mental Health: From Research to Practice - For Pediatric Care Providers
December 8, 2017
8:00am-12:30pm
Wilf Auditorium

Draft - Schedule of Events:

8:00-8:30 | Registration and Breakfast

8:30-9:00 | Dr. Michael Georgieff, Department of Pediatrics UMN
Early Brain Development: Early Intervention is Critical to Long-Term Mental Health

9:00-9:30 | Dr. Megan Gunnar, Institute of Child Development UMN
Toxic Stress and Biology of Early Relationships

9:30-10:00 | Dr. Dana Johnson, Department of Pediatrics UMN
The Role of Mental Health in Comprehensive Clinical Services for Children with Histories of Neglect, Deprivation and Abuse

10:00-10:30 | Dr. Maria Kroupina, Department of Pediatrics UMN
Including Mental Health in Pediatric Care for Young Children with Health Vulnerabilities

10:30-10:45 | Break

10:45-11:05 | Zero to Three HealthySteps Team
HealthySteps Model to Address Early Mental Health

11:05-11:50 | Katy Schalla Lesiak and Catherine Wright, Minnesota Department of Health
Early Screening and Early Mental Health Referral System in the State of Minnesota

11:50-12:30 | Round Table Q & A